

Publications Report October 11, 2013

Dear Scott,
Good luck with the meeting tomorrow.

The Fall BFSN will be in mailboxes by the end of the month. This issue is filled with good stories and lots of photos. Extra photos can be downloaded on Facebook. I'll also add to website. Due to outside commitments, this will be my last issue as editor. I've edited the newsletter for almost ten years, so it's time for a change. I recommend Dave Hollenbeck for the job, but whoever you choose, that person should have good writing and editorial skills as well as an ability to meet deadlines. The new editor will also become the Publications Committee chair. I am always available for advice during the transition.

I will continue to work with Shirley on the website. I'm looking forward to the changes she proposes. I also would like to do a Blog (if I can figure out how to do it). The Blog follows on a discussion with all of our seminar speakers about staying in touch and sharing Farrand-related information. The Blog would be invitational and open to all Farrand garden owners, administrators, advisory groups, organizations, and anyone else interested in sharing/advising on common problems. I've been in touch with the speakers already and they are excited about this.

If you have any questions, I'm on the Vineyard this weekend (508-627-9616) or send an email.
All best,
Judith
